Breaking the Mould

Community-Centred Engagement

Creating learning opportunities for socially isolated refugee and migrant mothers keen to participate in the wider community, TAFE NSW AMEP organised English classes at the Community Hub in Smithfield Public School.

South Western Sydney

Building meaningful partnerships through co-design and active participation, TAFE NSW worked with three Local Health Districts, CORE Community Services, Nepean Multicultural Access & Metro Assist to create employment opportunities.

- ▶ Career Pathways in Health for Migrants and Refugees
TAFE NSW Western Sydney

Adapting to generate solutions, TAFE NSW pivoted from classroom delivery to online learning, enabling skilled migrants from across the state to participate in targeted vocational education programs.

- ▶ Skilled Migrant Employment Program (SMEP) TAFE Digital.

Transforming ways of working, newly arrived humanitarian entrants from Afghanistan and Syria are supported in getting their skills and qualifications recognised towards further education and employment.

- ▶ Diploma of Civil Engineering
TAFE NSW Newcastle.

TAFE NSW Vision:

To be the leading provider of lifelong learning, meeting the evolving needs of industry and learners in communities across NSW.
