Department of Communities and Justice (DCJ) Grant Program Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) Template

Introduction

The Grant Program FAQ lists commonly asked questions and responses regarding the grant program and are developed to assist potential applicants.

Grants program

The NSW Government supports the prevention of Domestic, Family and Sexual Violence at the local level by providing annual grants to Local Domestic and Family Violence Committees across the state. In this context, grants of up to $1,800 are available for Local Domestic and Family Violence Committees across NSW by application.

It is recommended that these FAQs are read prior to completing an application for the Local Family Domestic Family Violence Committee Grant Program.

FAQ topics and questions

Overview of the Grants

Q: What is the Local Domestic and Family Violence Committee Grant Program?

A: Local Domestic and Family Violence Committee Grants must deliver a project that assists committees to raise awareness about:

- the impact of violence against women
- local services and support available within their communities.

Funds can be used to:

- develop educational and awareness raising resources
- print information booklets and promotional brochures and posters about domestic and family violence and/or local services suitable for community members

- provide childcare with an approved service provider to enable parents/carers to participate in activities.

Q: What are the aims and objectives of the Program?

A: The Local Domestic and Family Violence Committee Grants 2023 program, has four key objectives:

1. Raise awareness in the community about the destructive impacts of domestic and family violence.
2. Reinforce messages about positive behaviours and social norms rejecting violence against women.
3. Engage local groups, organisations – including men's organisations – and schools in leading efforts for change.
4. Increase awareness in the local community about services and assistance available, for those experiencing domestic and family violence, or those responsible for it.

Grant applications must demonstrate how the proposed project will contribute to raising awareness of domestic and family violence in your community by meeting at least one of the program objectives.

Q: What kind of organisations are eligible to apply?

A: Incorporated not-for-profit community organisations or a NSW local council operating under the Local Government Act 1993.

Note: for the purposes of this grant program, organisations deemed to be 'incorporated not-for-profit community organisations' include:

- incorporated organisations that are registered and approved as not-for-profit bodies by NSW Fair Trading
- not-for profit companies limited by guarantee, registered in NSW (must have ACNC registration and/or DGR status)
- associations (registered under the Associations Incorporation Act 2009 with NSW Fair Trading)
- NSW Local Aboriginal Land Councils
- religious organisations operating in NSW
- NSW non-government organisations established under an Act of Parliament.

Q: Can not-for-profit groups make a joint application?

A: No

Q: What are the funding amounts we can apply for?

A: A maximum of $1,800

Q: Does the program include funding categories?

A: No

Q: If the funding includes categories can I apply for more than one category?

A: No

How are these grant funds to be used?

Q: What can we use the grant funds for?

A: Funds can only be used for expenses/activities directly associated to the project. The application must clearly outline your proposed expenditure in the budget you submit with your application.

Funds can be used to:

- develop educational and awareness raising resources
- print information booklets and promotional brochures and posters about domestic and family violence and/or local services suitable for community members
- provide childcare with an approved service provider to enable parents/carers to participate in activities.

Q: What are we not allowed to spend grant funding on?

A: Organisations must not use the money provided for the project, nor any interest earned on the money, for any other purpose beyond what is specified in the approved project description

Items or activities that funding cannot be used for include:

- Any activity of a commercial nature that is for profit
- Existing debt or budget deficits
- Capital works, including building work
- Permanent salaries/wages (costs for temporary tutors/instructors for your program or activity can be included)
- Permanent equipment purchases, for example tables and computers
- Business as usual costs or general operating expenses
- Programs or activities that encourage gambling such as bingo, or the consumption of alcohol
- Programs and activities coordinated by NSW Government Departments and Statutory Authorities
- The same project twice. For example, two different organisations cannot apply for funds for the same program or activity

Q: Can we receive funding if we've already received an insurance payment, government grant or government funding?

A: No

Q: Can we apply for a project that has already started?

A: Grant funds are not available for projects already in progress at the application stage

Q: What is subcontracting?

A: In simple terms, for the purposes of these grants, “subcontracting” refers to an arrangement between your organisation and one or more other organisations/individuals (referred to as “subcontractors”) to assist your organisation to provide services funded through your grant. In some cases all the service delivery may be undertaken by the subcontractor. A subcontracting arrangement requires the eligible organisation to enter into an agreement with the subcontractor to conduct the work, but the applicant (lead) organisation will retain the contractual obligations to DCJ under the Grant Funding Agreement for delivery and accountability.

Q: Is subcontracting the same as auspicing?

A: Auspicing” is a form of subcontracting. Please note the term “subcontracting” is used for the purposes of this grant program.

Eligibility and assessment criteria

Q: What are the eligibility criteria?

Note: for the purposes of this grant program, organisations deemed to be ‘incorporated not-for-profit community organisations’ include:

- incorporated organisations that are registered and approved as not-for-profit bodies by NSW Fair Trading
- not-for profit companies limited by guarantee, registered in NSW (must have ACNC registration and/or DGR status)
- associations (registered under the Associations Incorporation Act 2009 with NSW Fair Trading)
- NSW Local Aboriginal Land Councils
- religious organisations operating in NSW
- NSW non-government organisations established under an Act of Parliament.

Note:

- all applicants must have appropriate insurance (minimum of $10 million, or as determined by program area),
- all applicants must address the NSW National Redress Scheme sanctions (included in this template), and
- applications will not be accepted from organisations that have outstanding acquittals with DCJ.

Q: What are the assessment criteria?

A: Eligible organisations must meet the following assessment criteria to be considered for funding:

Assessment criteria

Completing the application

Q: Do I have to use SmartyGrants to apply?

A: Yes, applications for this program will only be accepted that are submitted via the SmartyGrants platform.

Q: Can I review the application form before starting my application?

A: Yes, when you log on to SmartyGrants and view the application you can also choose to download as a PDF to review whenever you like. You can also preview the form online. Please note that PDF copies of application forms do not show which questions are conditional, so you may see questions that do or do not apply to your organisation.

Q: Can I provide letters of support or references to support my application?

A: No, only your application form and any documents requested and submitted through the form on SmartyGrants will be considered.

Q: Is there support available to help me apply or answer questions?

A: The DCJ Grants team can assist organisations with any queries regarding the application process. Organisations can contact the Grant Design and Support at SPCGrantsteam@fac.s.nsw.gov.au. Please quote your Application ID in all correspondence. If you are not familiar with the SmartyGrants management system, please refer to the SmartyGrants Help Guide for Applicants or their general help page. You can also contact SmartyGrants directly if you are having technical difficulties with the application form or your SmartyGrants account/password, for contact details visit their help page.

Q: Can we submit more than one application?

A: No.

Q. What is the difference between an ACCO and other organisations that serve Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities?

A: Please refer to our page on Aboriginal Community-Controlled Organisations (ACCOs), which also provides information on our commitment to building the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community-controlled sector.

Q. Should we include GST in our application?

A: Your funding request should exclude any GST that you will be charged by contractors or suppliers as part of the cost/delivery. If your application is successful and your organisation's ABN is registered for GST, you will be paid GST on top of the approved grant amount. If your organisation ABN is not registered for GST or you do not have an ABN, you will only be paid the approved grant amount.

Q: Who needs to sign off on our application?

A: The Applicant Declaration must be made by two of your organisation's authorised signatories, who will also be responsible for signing the Grant Funding Agreement via DocuSign should your application be successful. More information on DCJ authorised signatories is available on the DCJ website. Please note, you must provide the contact details (email address, phone number, name and position) of the relevant authorised signatories, or their delegates, in your application form. Please contact SPC-GrantsHub@fac.s.nsw.gov.au immediately if these details change.

Q: Why would we want to provide the details of a third (optional) person in our Application form to view the Grant Funding Agreement?

A: DCJ administers Grant Funding Agreements to successful organisations via DocuSign, which only allows those who receive an individualised link to access the document for viewing. Therefore, all of those who wish to either sign or view the Grant Funding Agreement must provide their contact details. You may wish to include any relevant legal or administrative staff to review a copy of the Grant Funding Agreement before it is signed.

Q: Can value-in-kind be considered as funding contributed by a not-for-profit organisation?

A: Yes. Donated materials and contributions by paid staff and volunteers of the organisation are allowed as part of the not-for-profit organisation's contribution to the cost of a project. The estimated value of these contributions should be provided in the project budget.

Q: Is it too late to apply?

A: Applications that are late or incorrectly filled out or incomplete will not be accepted.

Other requirements

Q: What insurance is my organisation required to maintain?

A: Your organisation:

- is required to provide a valid Certificate of Currency for Public Liability Insurance with a minimum cover of $10 million in your organisation's name, which you will upload as part of your application
- must retain any other insurance required under Commonwealth and NSW law for the performance of its activities funded by this grant, if successful
- is responsible for ensuring it has appropriate and current insurance coverage in place to cover any liability of the grant recipient that might arise in connection with the performance of its obligations under its Grant Funding Agreement, which includes activities carried out by any other individual or organisation that you may subcontract.

Q: What is the NSW National Redress Scheme?

A: The National Redress Scheme is part of the Commonwealth Government's response to the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse. The National Redress Scheme provides support to people who experienced institutional child sexual abuse.

The Scheme:

- Acknowledges that many children were sexually abused in Australian institutions;
- Holds institutions accountable for this abuse; and
- Helps people who have experienced institutional child sexual abuse gain access to counselling, a direct personal response, and a Redress payment.

The Scheme started on 1 July 2018 and will run for 10 years. The NSW Government will not award a grant to a non-government organisation with Redress Obligation (or to any of its Related Entities) if that non-government organisation:

- Has declined to join the Scheme, or
- At the expiry of six months after the time it is notified to join the Scheme, has failed to do so.

For further information please visit the NSW National Redress Scheme Sanctions Policy webpage.

Q: Where can I find out my responsibilities in relation to COVID-19?

A: Please refer to the up-to-date information on current public health orders and advice on the NSW Government's COVID-19 webpage. Due to the changing impacts of COVID-19 across NSW, it is the successful applicant's responsibility to keep track of current NSW Government public health orders and advice, and adhere to them.

Q: Do I need to provide banking details?

A: Yes. It is your responsibility to provide the correct banking details, including the authorised signature to verify your bank details, in your application form. Funds transferred to an incorrect bank account may not be recoverable. This applies even if you have provided your banking details to DCJ in the past or are currently receiving other payments from DCJ.

Q: Why should I keep my contact details up to date?

A: Your application, Funding Agreement and acquittal for the grants will be managed using the SmartyGrants online grants administration system and DocuSign. We will contact you and your organisation's authorised signatories using the details provided in your application on SmartyGrants.

It is the responsibility of the grant recipient to keep DCJ up to date with any change in contact information, including the contact details of authorised signatories. DCJ is not responsible for any consequences should your grant offer be withdrawn due to out-of-date contact details in SmartyGrants. Please email SPCGrantsteam@facns.nsw.gov.au to update contact details.

Completing the application - one stage process

In grant programs where only the one application form is used, the following process is typical:

- You can log in to SmartyGrants on the link provided.
- You are not required to complete your application in one sitting and can save and return at a later date to complete and submit.
- Once your application has been submitted you will receive an automated response from SmartyGrants. If you have not received this email, your application has not been successfully submitted, or the confirmation email has ended up in your junk mailbox.
- You can also log in to the online system and click 'My Submissions' to view all submitted and unsubmitted applications. Submitted applications are identified by a green tick. Carefully check your application prior to submitting. If you realise that you have made an error once you have submitted your application please contact SPCGrantsteam@facns.nsw.gov.au for assistance before the closing date.
- Applications that are late or incorrectly filled out or incomplete will not be accepted'.

Assessment process

Q: What is the assessment process?

A: The assessment process for a one stage application:

1. DCJ eligibility team conducts a review to ensure eligibility the eligibility criteria listed above and general compliance with guidelines
2. DCJ assessment team will assess each eligible application against the assessment criteria listed above and make recommendations for the final decision maker.

After applications close

Q: What happens when you receive my application?

A: Applicants will be formally notified within 2 weeks of their application being received as whether it has been successful or unsuccessful. Applicants must ensure their contact details on SmartyGrants remain up to date.

Q: Will the information in my application be kept confidential?

A: Information received in applications and in respect of applications is treated as confidential, and all assessors will sign a confidentiality agreement before reviewing your application. However, documents in the possession of the government are subject to the provisions of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009. If you are successful, the NSW Government may share or publicise information on your program. An agreement that this may occur will form part of your Grants Funding Agreement].

Q: When will I know if my application was successful?

A: You will be notified via email in October 2023. Applicants must ensure their contact details on SmartyGrants remain up to date.

Q: If I'm successful, what happens then?

A: You will be notified via email in October 2023 and shortly after a Grants Funding Agreement will be sent via DocuSign to the authorised signatories, and any additional reviewers, as provided in your application form. Successful applicants are required to return the signed Funding Agreement within seven days of receipt.

Grant Funding Agreements can only be signed by authorised officers of your organisation. This may be a member of the executive/committee as deemed under the Articles of Association or Constitution if you are a not-for-profit organisation. Please refer to the following for further details on authorised signatories and delegation. Please note, you must provide the contact details (email address, phone number, name and position) of the relevant authorised signatories, or their delegates, in your application form. Please contact SPCGrantsteam@fac.s.nsw.gov.au immediately if these details change. It is your responsibility to ensure staff availability to complete and sign documents, to carefully read the terms and conditions of the Grant Funding Agreement, and to sign the Grant Funding Agreement using the correct authorised signatories. Once we receive your signed Funding Agreement via DocuSign, your Grant Funding Agreement will be countersigned and sent to you by email.

Q: What happens if situations change and we wish to change the details of our program after we receive funding?

A: Any major variations to the approved purposes outlined in your original application form on SmartyGrants must be formally requested and approved in writing before any related work takes place, as your application form will form part of your legally binding Grant Funding Agreement with DCJ. Failure to do so may result in you being required to return the grant monies in full. To discuss a variation, please contact the Grants team by email SPCGrantsteam@fac.s.nsw.gov.au.

Q: What reporting will be required?

Successful applicants may need to submit quarterly reports, mid-term reports or others as applicable. This will be done in the Smarty Grants Portal

Q: What acquittals requirements?

A: Successful applicants will be required to submit a simple financial acquittal by 31 July 2024. The acquittal will include an expenditure breakdown on:

- Staffing costs
- Reimbursement
- Minor equipment and assets
- Operational costs
- Minor expenses for individuals

An officeholder in your organisation will be required to certify that the grant funds have been expended as per your financial acquittal.

Q: Why was my application not successful?

A: If your application is not successful, it does not mean your application is without merit. Funding is limited and not all applications are successful. Due to the high volume, DCJ is unable to provide individual feedback on each unsuccessful application.
